

Enterprise Law Group, LLP and partner, Steven K. Sims, represented the shareholders of one of the largest independent U.S. distributors of refined fuels to commercial and industrial users in the sale of their business for approximately $27.0 million. This deal closed in January 2006.